San Diego, CA (March 8, 2022) – The San Diego Bay Wine & Food Festival® returns for its 18th annual festival November 9-13, 2022. Anchored in San Diego, California, Southern California's most anticipated food and wine festival welcomes over 11,000 wine and food enthusiasts for a five-day celebration of city-wide events, including the Grand Tasting on Saturday, November 12 located at San Diego's Port and stunning Embarcadero.

"We are so excited for locals and visitors alike to Arrive at Awesome® this November for an unparalleled celebration of Southern California's diverse culinary landscape and the flavors inspired by San Diego's multinational influences," says Festival Co-Producer, Michelle Metter. "From across the country as well as in our hometown we will welcome food, wine, beer and spirits enthusiasts looking to enjoy our week-long line up of events and experiences."

The San Diego Bay Wine & Food Festival's schedule historically includes over 60 nationally recognized and locally celebrated chefs, legendary winemakers, guest mixologists, award-winning authors, distillers, sommeliers, brewmasters, artisans and tastemakers, and more. Additionally, the festival traditionally features more than 300 domestic and international wine, beer, and spirit brands to join the festival, providing over 800 tasting opportunities.

As the winner of USA Today 10 Best Readers' Choice travel award contest for Best General Food Festival in North America, this festival is one of the country's most anticipated events in wine and food.
